TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT. vii

PREFACE ix

PROGRAM OF THE CONFERENCE. xxi

Part One

OVERVIEW

1. The Marketing Concept in Action 3
   Robert E. Sessions

2. Foot Dragging Made Easy. 18
   Thomas C. Dillon

3. Create Make and Market. 30
   Patrick E. Haggerty

Part Two

THE MARKETING CONCEPT AND CORPORATE ORGANIZATION

4. The Product Managers Concept in Marketing 45
   Reginald B. Collier

5. Four Critical Questions for Marketing Management. 58
   Charles E. St. Thomas

6. Organizational Problems and Strategy in International Marketing Operations. 65
   Walter K. Joelson

7. Organizing for Really Effective Marketing Planning. 74
   John D. Louth

8. Motivating the Entire Marketing Organization for Maximum Performance 88
   Richard A. Geuder

XUM

9. Resources Needed to Support an Effective Line Sales Effort 91
Scott A. Rogers, Jr.

10. A Customer Oriented Approach to Managing Change 94
Edward S. McKay

11. Organization and the Marketing Concept — Product Planning, Product Management and Sales 105
Donald H. Arvold

Part Three

PLANNING IN MARKETING MANAGEMENT

12. Planning — Key to Customer Orientation 117
Robert W. Ferrell

13. Some Principal Legal Constraints on Long-Range Planning and Marketing Development 126
Charles M. Hewitt, Jr.

14. Forecasting Structural Change in Long Range Planning . . . 146
Wroe Alderson

15. Marketing Information, Intelligence and Long Range Planning 154
Edward L. Brink

16. The Marketing Management Concept in Capital Goods 159
James E. Parks

Part Four

PROBLEMS IN INDUSTRIAL MARKETING

17. Some Challenges of Industrial Marketing for Practitioners and Teachers 181
Kenneth Lawyer

18. Communications — Or the Lack Thereof 195
Edward Bloom

XUM

Part Five
ADVERTISING

I. THE RELATIONSHIP OF ADVERTISING TO MARKETING

19. Advertising — Its Role in Marketing Management 207
Alvin Griesedieck, Jr.

20. The AAAA Study on Consumer Judgement of Advertising 216
Donald L. Kanter

21. Advertising and Its Publics: Changing Relations. 231
Stephen A. Greyser

22. The Declining Market for Pigs in Pokes 243
Thomas M. Newell

23. Advertising Agency Duties and Responsibilities — From the Client Point of View 255
Fred R. Haviland, Jr.

24. Client Duties and Responsibilities From the Advertising Agency Point of View 265
Esty Stowell

II. ADVERTISING RESEARCH

25. Measuring the Effectiveness of Advertising 275
Alfred A. Kuehn

26. Advertising Research From the Practitioner's Viewpoint. . 282
Michael P. Ryan

27. Marketing Management's Needs From Advertising Research 288
Charles G. Trundle

Part Six
PACKAGING AND MARKETING MANAGEMENT

28. The Power of the Package. 299
Robert R. Smith

29. The Consumer in Focus: Packaging Innovations and Buyer Behavior. 314
Hugh Schwartz

XUM

30. The Consumer — To Whom Can She Turn? 323
Julia Morse

31. A History of Packaging. 334
William C. Simms

Part Seven
COST CONTROL IN MARKETING

32. Improving the Productivity of Marketing Operations 351
Charles H. Sevin

33. Applying Direct Item Costing for Distributor Profit Improvement 360
John M. Updegraph, Jr.

Part Eight
MARKETING RESEARCH

I. MARKETING RESEARCH IN NEW PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT

A Basic Marketing System — A Case Study in the Use of Economical Computerized Management Information Systems. 373
Arnold E. Amstutz

35. Demon; A Management Planning and Control System for Successfully Marketing New Products 393
David B. Learner

36. Green Giant Entry Into Frozen Foods: The Market Research Story 409
Roger E. Bengston

37. The Proten Case: The Role of Marketing Research in the Evolution of Marketing Strategy 417
William L. White

38. The Market Research Chapter of the Sego Success Story . . 432
Leon P. Ullensvang

39. The Role of Marketing Research in Purex Progress 445
John J. Houlahan, Jr.

40. The Role of Marketing in the Birth of a New Business 452
John W. Eden

41. Evaluating Opportunities for New Industrial and Business Products 462
Donald A. Künstler

42. The Concept is the Actuality 478
Blaine M. Cooke

II. NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN ATTITUDE RESEARCH

43. Overcoming Superficiality in Multi-National Attitude Research 493
Lincoln Armstrong

44. A Comparison of Three Rating Scales 508
Irving Crespi

45. Some Unorthodox Solutions to Orthodox Problems 519
Burns W. Roper

III. IMPROVING THE ACCURACY OF RESPONSE FROM SURVEYS

46. A Framework for Dealing with Response Errors in Consumer Surveys 533
Robert Ferber
Matthew Hauck

47. Description of a Pilot Study to Test the Accuracy of Interviewer Recording 541
William Ash

48. Can Competence Be Legislated? 549
Nancy C. Cooley

49. The Effects of Repeated Household Interviews in the Current Population Survey 555
Joseph Waksberg
Robert B. Pearl

IV. TEST MARKETING

50. The Purpose of Market Testing 575
Alvin A. Achenbaum

51. The Design of Test Marketing Experiments 588
Benjamin Lipstein

52. Implementation of Test Marketing 597
Seymour Banks

XUM

V. SALES FORECASTING

53. Sales Forecasting in Action: A Case Study 607
Alan B. Huellmantel
Duncan M. Ackley

Part Nine

MARKETING THEORY

I. QUANTITATIVE ASPECTS OF MARKETING

54. The Marketing Concept and Its Quantitative Implications . . 621
M. S. Heidingsfield

55. Estimates of Retailer Sales By Auditing Without Taking Inventories 635
Solomon Dutka

56. A Mathematical Model to Isolate the Factors Which Determine Market Shares 641
Arnold J. King
Donald W. King

II. MARKETING SCIENCE AND THE MARKETING CONCEPT

57. The Marketing Concept: Fact or Intelligent Platitude 653
Robert L. King

58. Marketing Science: Stepchild of Economics 662
Charles K. Ramond

59. Marketing Science: Past, Present, and Future Developments 676
George Schwartz

60. Comments on the three above Papers 693
Robert Bartels

Part Ten

THE ROLE OF THE MARKETING CONCEPT IN SPECIFIC INDUSTRIES

I. THE SOUTH WEST FARM MARKET

61. Retail Merchandising Trends in the Dynamic Southwest . . . 699
Othel M. Neely

62. The Formula Feed Market 705
Wren Vinyard

63. The Agricultural Chemical Market 710
Charles M. Meadows

64. The Fertilizer Market in the Southwest 713
William O. Trodgen

II. THE MEDICAL MARKET

65. The Hospital and the Private Practice of Medicine 719
William L. Chapman, Jr.

III. THE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT MARKET

66. The Inter-relationships Between Industrial Development and Marketing 731
Robert B. Seal

67. Marketing of Industrial Development 737
James D. Eppright

68. The Effective Use of Marketing Techniques and Industrial Development 744
C. J. G. Leesemann

IV. THE TRANSPORTATION AND TRAVEL INDUSTRY

69. The Moving Marketing Target 753
William H. Reynolds

70. The Scientific Marketing of Travel 761
Robert A. Peattie, Jr.

V. THE OIL INDUSTRY

71. Scientific Marketing in the Oil Industry 775
Edward F. Reinker

VI. THE AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY

72. Factory Marketing After the Sale 785
Morton I. Stockler

XUM

VII. THE CLOTHING INDUSTRY

73. Sell Retailers the Concept, Then the Product 799
Burton L. Kamberg

VIII. THE PAPER INDUSTRY

74. Current Trends in the Marketing of Printing Papers 807
John H. Vogel

75. The Marketing Concept as Applied to Folding Boxes 816
W. Taylor Bouchelle

76. Current Trends in the Marketing of Corrugated Containers 830
Garth H. Miller

IX. THE DEFENSE AND SPACE MARKETS

77. The Defense Research and Development Market 843
Charles Z. Hamman

78. The Defense Procurement Market 850
Thomas L. Shubert

79. The National Space Program Market. 856
William C. Walter

80. Strengths and Weaknesses of Defense Market Practices . . . 869
John J. Kennedy

X. THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

81. The Marketing Concept — Savings and Loans Associations In Action 883
Gary Driggs

82. Insurance and the Marketing Concept — People in Action . . 896
Harold S. Hook

83. Marketing Looks at Banking and the Marketing Concept . . . 904
Robert C. Bowen

84. The Marketing Concept and Credit Unions 910
Walter Polner

Part Eleven

INNOVATION: KEY TO MARKETING PROGRESS

85. Will Marketing Innovation Make Obsolete the Concept of Natural Monopoly? 925

Author's Index 941

XUM